

Choices 2022-2023

Key Information for pupils choosing their options

Choices

Choosing our options is a really exciting time in our academic journey. It means we have a chance to specialise in the subjects we enjoy the most. It should also mark the beginning of conversations about our futures. Whilst we might not know exactly what we want to do when we are adults, we should spend time talking and thinking about what is available. Why not start researching post 16 provision, universities, apprenticeships and potential careers to see what is out there?

What next?

Passion

Start thinking about what you love. It will be easier to motivate yourself when you are studying something you love.

Curiosity

What will the future hold?
Look at post 16 provision, discuss potential future pathways and get excited!

Progress

What are you good at?
There may be some subjects you find easier and these maybe worth considering.
